"DEFEND RIGHTS FOR WHITES!"

NATIONAL FRONT MARCH AND RALLY!
ASSEMBLE: 2.00 pm SUNDAY 30th AUGUST, FULHAM BROADWAY IMPORTANT NOTE! THE RALLY WILL STILL TAKE PLACE EVEN IF THE MARCH IS BANNED—SO BE THERE WITH YOUR FRIENDS. MOBILISE!

PATRIOTS FROM ALL OVER BRITAIN WILL BE CONVERGING ON FULHAM BROADWAY, WEST LONDON, AT NOON ON SUNDAY 30th AUGUST IN ORDER TO JOIN A GREAT DEMONSTRATION ORGANISED BY THE NATIONAL FRONT ON THE THEME: "DEFEND RIGHTS FOR WHITES!"

Many of those who join the demonstration will be National Front members — but all responsible White British people who believe that the time has come to mobilise in defence of their race, nation and families will be welcome.

Never could such a demonstration be more timely! The first seven months of this year have seen riots of ever-increasing ferocity breaking out in the Immigrant areas of almost all of England's major cities!

The windows of shops in high streets throughout the land are still boarded up. The Police are frantically equipping themselves like science-fiction gladiators.

This is because everybody knows that the riots we have experienced this year were not a flash-in-the-pan protest against unemployment, but a regular feature of life in a multi-racial society.

MULTI-RACIAL HATRED

The attempt to impose a multi-racial society in Britain has generated just the same kind of hatred and violence that is experienced by multi-racial societies everywhere else in the world.

The ultimate solution of the tragedy of Coloured Immigration is the REPATRIATION of all Coloured Immigrants, together with their descendants and dependants, back to their ethnic homelands. Many Immigrants have begun to realise this.

In the meanwhile, however, a race-war catastrophe is looming.

Many White and Black people living in the Notting Hill area of Kensington, West London, believe that the race-war catastrophe could begin in their neighbourhood during the 'Carnival' — set to take place over the August Bank Holiday weekend.

It is estimated that up to 300,000 West Indians from all parts of Britain will pour into Notting Hill for the 'Carnival'. Serious rioting has broken out on the occasion of several previous 'Carnivals'.

In view of the sustained rioting in West Indian inundated areas throughout Britain earlier this year, and in view of the fact that several of those riots took place at fairs attended by large numbers of Black youths, local residents — especially White people — living in Notting

Hill are viewing this year's 'Carnival' with dread and terror.

HOMES BARRICADED

Many White residents move out of the area to stay with relations during these 'Carnivals'. Others stock up with food and drink and barricade themselves in their homes.

Last year 12,000 Police were on duty in the area — at a cost of £600,000.

The Police would like to ban the 'Carnival' — but as a Police Superintendent admitted on a recent LBC Radio programme, the attempt to try and enforce such a ban might cause even more trouble than allowing it to go ahead!

Even if every one of London's 24,000 Policemen were to be mobilised to try and enforce a ban on the 'Carnival' they would still be overwhelmed — and not just by hundreds of thousands of West Indians, but by White Communist agitators and White criminal hooligans.

What a dreadful predicament to face our nation's capital city! It is an outrage that the White residents of Notting Hill should be terrorised, and the Police force obliged to back off, by a three-day West Indian pandemonium.

The situation over the 'Carnival' demonstrates how the majority White population is being cowed by the threat of massive mob violence by unruly elements among the Black community.

WHITE MAN! YOU HAVE A DUTY TO DEFEND

YOUR RACE, HOMELAND AND FAMILY!

MAKE A STAND

If White people do not make a stand against this kind of thing now — then the prospects for our White children in the years ahead when the Immigrant community has doubled its size are too dreadful to contemplate.

This is the reason why we are staging our "Defend Rights for Whites!" march and rally in Chelsea and Fulham during the middle day of the Notting Hill 'Carnival'.

This is why we call on all self-respecting White British people to join the demonstration — and to attend the rally even if the march is banned.

BRITISH PEOPLE! AWAKE, ARISE — OR BE FOREVER FALLEN!

JOE PEARCE GETS FOUR MORE RACE SUMMONSES

JOE PEARCE, Editor of the Young National Front magazine Bulldog, has been served with four more Race Relations Act summonses.

The summonses all allege "incitement to racial hatred". They relate to issues 20 to 23 of Bulldog. Joe has already received similar summonses in respect of issues 15 to 19.

Permission for prosecutions for "racial incitement" has to be granted by the Attorney-General — currently Sir Michael Havers.

Havers' decision to issue a total of nine summonses against Joe stands in stark contrast to his decision to drop prosecutions against Blacks who led last year's Bristol race riots.

"I WANT A BLACK PRIME MINISTER" —S.D.P. LEADER SHIRLEY WILLIAMS

"I LOOK FORWARD TO THE DAY WHEN BRITAIN HAS A BLACK PRIME MINISTER. Then we will have overthrown the stereotype that only White men rule things in this country!"

These words of treason were spoken by Mrs. Shirley Williams, a leading light in the media promoted and big-business funded Social Democratic Party.

She made the statement in January 1977 to a meeting of sixth-form schoolchildren organised by a sinister brainwashing organisation called the Council for Education in World Citizenship.

She went on to tell the children: "We can make education more internationally responsive by recognising the fact that we are now a multi-national and multi-racial country.

"We shouldn't see it as a problem but increasingly as an opportunity . . . We are going to have to make up our minds to drop the word 'immigrants' because there aren't any more in this country — or only a very few.

"There are black Britons, brown Britons, white Britons and yellow Britons — and it's about time we recognised the fact that we are, if you like, a rainbow country."

Somebody should tell Mrs.

Williams that a mixture of black, brown, yellow and white is more reminiscent of a cess-pit than a rainbow!

Anybody who has heard Mrs. Williams on radio or TV recently will know that so far from dropping these views since she left the Labour Party to help form the SDP, she has intensified her poisonous race-mixing opinions.

In addition to destroying the British race through race-mixing, Mrs. Williams and her SDP chums are dedicated to keeping Britain in the Common Market and under the domination of International Finance.

The SDP is a distillation of all the worst aspects of the Tory and Labour parties.

Calling all NF Trade Unionists

ALL National Front members who are members of a trade union are invited to contact the Steering Committee of a soon-to-be-formed NF trade unionists organisation in order to get details of a conference to be held in London on Saturday 12th September.

NF members who are not yet members of a trade union and who are able and willing to join one should do so as quickly as possible.

Relatively small numbers of Marxists have achieved a substantial amount of power by getting organised within the unions.

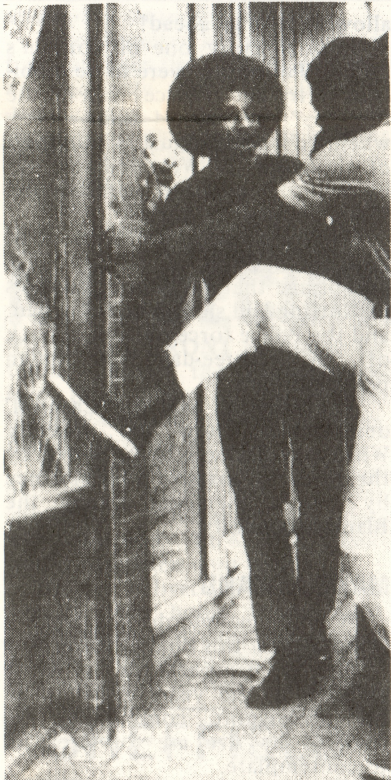

Nationalists must get organised to counter Red subversion and to re-direct the trade union movement to fight for the interests of British working people.

THE LONG FUSE

THE EXPLOSIONS of violence in the multi-racial districts of numerous cities in England this year were not detonated by a short fuse. The fuse started to be laid 33 years ago when the first British Nationality Act became law in 1948.

That law — which gave notional 'British citizenship' to a fifth of the world's population — was jointly endorsed by the Labour government, of the day and by the Conservative and Liberal 'opposition'.

The British public was told that the law was intended merely as a symbolic gesture, a sentimental link between Britain and the countless millions of former subjects of the British Empire who were in process of becoming citizens of independent Commonwealth nations.

The British people were not told that this 'sentimental gesture' would become the means whereby their nation would be converted into a multi-racial society.

Indeed, the British people were not told by the Parliamentary parties in their election manifestos or by the mass media that their nation's racial homogeneity was to be destroyed until steady but unpublicised mass immigration over a period of more than a decade had established the multi-racial society as a fait accompli.

WITHOUT PERMISSION

The accomplishment of such a change by fait accompli was clearly contrary to and subversive of Parliamentary democracy and the Rule of Law.

The fact that the British people — especially the urban Working Class — were plunged into a multi-racial 'melting-pot' without their permission (and contrary to their wishes once their fate had dawned on them) generated a mood of resentment which inevitably became expressed through an attitude of hostility to the alien incomers.

This wholly understandable attitude ("racism") on the part of a majority of White people in multi-racial areas evoked a reciprocation of feelings of resentment from the Immigrants, and this resentment was a constituent of the fissile material which exploded in our big cities this year.

The fact that the urban White Working Class was not enthusiastic about the multi-racial society was demonstrated as early as 1958 with the Notting Hill race riots.

Notting Hill, West London, was the first district in Britain (post 1948) to be subjected to a concentrated influx of West Indian immigrants.

RACE ACT INTIMIDATION

White resistance to multi-racialism was finally admitted as a fact by Parliament in 1965 when the first of the notorious Race Relations Acts was passed.

The clear purpose of this Act was to try and force the White majority to 'integrate' with the Immigrants and to intimidate into silence those who expressed strong opposition to race-mixing.

This law, and its two successors, proved to be counter-productive. It confirmed in many White people's minds the belief that the endless flow of Immigrants was the product of a conspiracy to destroy the British nation.

This in turn galvanised an increase of open and organised opposition to Immigration and race-mixing which in turn reinforced feelings of resentment by the Immigrant community.

DANGER SIGNALS

Despite all the danger signals, successive Labour and Conservative governments allowed yet more Immigrants to flood in.

This situation would have been an unbearable strain even for a relatively prosperous society. But post-war Britain entered a period of industrial decline consequent upon the break-up of the Empire and the resultant loss of secure sources of raw materials and protected export markets.

In 1950 Britain's share of the world's export trade in manufactured goods was 25 per cent. By 1977 this had fallen to 9 per cent.

In 1955 only 5 per cent of manufactured goods sold in Britain were imported. By 1975 that figure had risen to 28 per cent.

INDUSTRIAL DECAY

In 1950 'only' 300,000 people were unemployed in Britain. Today 3 million people are on the dole.

In these circumstances Britain has not generated the wealth to re-organise and re-equip its wealth-producing industrial base, and thus has been unable to solve urban decay and housing problems inherited from the pre-war period.

Thus the injection of a racial problem into a society already suffering from chronic economic and industrial decay was an act of criminal insanity (or deliberate treason) which could only result in explosions of violence.

And the worst is yet to be.

"MULTI-RACIAL" RIOTS—THE GI

THE propaganda campaign to persuade the British public that the recent eruptions of violence in numerous cities were "not race riots" was better organised than the Police campaign to drive the rioters off the streets.

It is true that many (though not all) the riots involved 'racially integrated' mobs — but that heavily over-worked fact does not disprove our contention that the disorders were generated in the first instance by the growing determination of groups within the West Indian and Asian communities to make war on White society by means of mob violence.

The underlying racial factor in all the riots may be established by an honest answer to the question: "Would the riots have NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism in Britain, and not to the Immigrant population in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful.

MORE WHITE VICTIMS

MULTI-RACIALISTS attempt to excuse outbreaks of violence by Immigrants by maintaining a propaganda deluge about "racial attacks" — by Whites on Immigrants.

But racial attacks on Whites — perpetrated especially by young Black muggers — have been an ugly feature of multi-racial districts for years.

More than a decade ago Scotland Yard, reporting on the situation in Brixton, stated that 80 per cent of the muggers were Black, 80 per cent of their victims were White, that 70 per cent of the victims were women — of whom a fifth were aged over 60.

taken place had there been no mass Coloured Immigration into Britain?" The answer to that questions must be "No!"

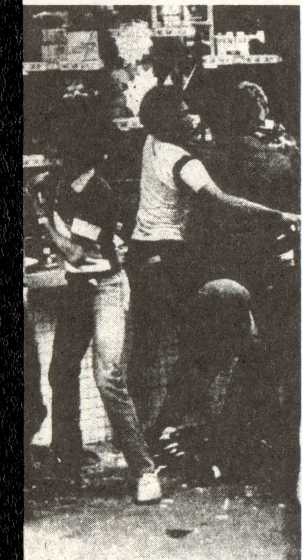

In the case of every city where serious rioting took place, the trouble began in areas notorious for the huge size of their Immigrant population: Brixton, Southall and Walthamstow in London; Toxteth in Liverpool; Moss Side in Manchester; Highfields in Leicester; Chapeltown in Leeds; Handsworth in Birmingham.

The White Trash who rioted and looted were not politically motivated. They were merely criminal opportunists exploiting a disaster. An earthquake would have served them just as well as the catastrophe of Immigration.

nd to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in only "racial hatred".

THE EXPLOSION

WHEN, where and by whom was the fuse lit which detonated the explosions of violence which rocked the multi-racial districts of English cities this year?

When: 2nd April 1980.

Where: St. Paul's, Bristol.

By Whom: The Chief Constable of Avon and Somerset, Mr. Brian Weigh; the Home Secretary Mr. William Whitelaw; the Attorney-General Sir Michael Havers; the Chairman of the Commission for Racial Equality Mr. David Lane; and mass media editors.

On 2nd April Police raided a cafe in St. Paul's, Bristol, where West Indians engaged in unlawful drinking and drug dealing. A mob of Blacks quickly congregated and began to riot.

POLICE WITHDRAWN

The response of the Chief Constable should have been to flood the area as quickly as possible with a large force in order to quell the riot.

Instead, he withdrew his men from the area for a period of seven hours, thereby abandoning law-abiding people and their property to the mercy of the mob.

The Chief Constable was clearly terrified of being depicted by the mass media as a "racist oppressor" of Black people and so he opted for the course of "allowing the mob to exhaust itself" before re-asserting the rule of law.

This decision was endorsed by Home Secretary William Whitelaw. Later Whitelaw was to endorse other decisions by so-called "law enforcement" officers in respect of the Bristol riot which were to further undermine the rule of law.

"NOT RACIAL"

Before the Police had re-occupied St. Paul's the Chairman of the Community Relations Commission, Mr. David Lane, and numerous other 'Community Relations' spokesmen were rushed on to TV to declare:

"This is not a race riot. It is the inevitable outcome of Police harassment of the Black community and the high level of unemployment and bad housing to which Black people are subjected in inner-city areas. Britain's racist society is to blame!"

Many of the St. Paul's rioters who were arrested escaped conviction because (as Lord Denning later indicated) some of the Black people who served on juries showed a marked disinclination to find any Black accused guilty.

This subversion of justice was compounded by a decision of the Attorney-General, Sir Michael Havers, in the case of five alleged Black rioters who should have faced a re-trial following the inability of a jury to agree on a verdict.

CHARGES DROPPED

Instead of ordering a re-trial, Sir Michael ordered that the charges against the men be dropped "in the interests of good race relations." This decision was endorsed by William Whitelaw.

Game, set and match to the rioters!

All these events were watched with close interest by 'militant' elements among Black communities in big cities throughout the land. What lessons did they learn?

Firstly, that large numbers of Black people can quickly congregate in 'ghetto' areas and that if they are aggressive enough they can quickly overwhelm all but the largest deployment of Police.

Secondly, that those in charge of the Police have become so bemused by considerations of 'Community Relations' and so worried about what the multi-racialist mass media might say of them - that they will hesitate to take decisive action against a determined mob comprised mainly of Black people.

RIOTING PROFITABLE

Thirdly, that senior government ministers and Crown officers are so desperate to avoid a crack-up of the multi-racial society (which they are responsible for constructing) that they will go to almost any length in order to placate a Black mob.

Fourthly, that no matter what crimes and mayhem are perpetrated by Black rioters, the mass media and leaders of the 'Race Relations Industry' will portray the rioters as victims, not as malefactors.

Fifthly, that riots are profitable - both in terms of goods that can be looted and in terms of cash aid that will be injected into riot-torn areas by government agencies.

In view of the riots which broke out in the Immigrant areas of so many other cities this year, who can deny that the lessons for the Black community of the riot at Bristol were not well learned?

SHOPPERS FLOCK TO JOIN N.F. MARCH IN LEEDS

SCORES of Saturday afternoon shoppers joined the 700 National Front members who marched through Leeds City Centre on 4th July. The march, on the theme of "British Jobs for British Workers" was colourful and noisy, but was entirely peaceful.

All along the route the marchers, led by the Flag Party with their forest of Union Flags and by the North West Regional Drum Corps, were greeted with shouts of support and "thumbs up" signs from passers by.

The National Front Activities Organiser, Martin Webster, had announced that the National Front would be holding a march somewhere in West Yorkshire on 4th July, but would not say where.

This led to a barrage of publicity with all the local papers believing that the march would be in their town.

The Wakefield Courier thought the march would be in Wakefield; the Huddersfield Examiner thought it would be in Huddersfield; the Leeds based Yorkshire Post thought it would be in Leeds; and the Bradford Telegraph and Argus was convinced it would be in Bradford.

Leeds City Council was particularly upset by the possibility of a march in their city because July 4th was the day on which an Anti Nazi League "Carnival" was planned.

"CARNIVAL"

This "Carnival" was supported by a number of Councillors and to ask for a ban on the National Front march would also have meant a ban on the "Carnival".

With National Front members from all over the country assembling at the redirection point 15 miles outside Leeds, it became clear that while wishing to have the National Front march banned the City Council had felt itself unable to ban the ANAL Carnival.

The convoy of coaches, minibuses and cars set off for Leeds City Centre and as they arrived at the assembly point they were joined by large numbers of Leeds National Front members and more than 700 marchers formed up to march through the main shopping area.

With only a limited Police presence and with the Reds unaware that the National Front was on the march the column drew crowds of shoppers who were invited to join the parade. By the time the column arrived at the rally point the numbers had swelled to 900.

Rally Chairman Martin Webster announced that the National Front

would be holding a "Defend Rights for Whites" march and rally in Fulham on the same day as the Notting Hill Carnival. He then introduced Nick Griffin, Chairman of the National Front Elections Department, who is to be the NF candidate in the forthcoming Croydon NW by-election.

The rally was concluded with a rousing speech by Andrew Brons, Chairman of the National Front.

There were no arrests on this entirely peaceful march where even those policemen present had nothing more to do than to direct the traffic and restrain the one foaming

Red who was showing signs of severe apoplexy at the sight of the National Front marchers.

PEACEFUL

Contrast this with the orgy of vandalism, mugging and looting which took place during the march by Blacks supposedly in protest at the death of 13 West Indians in a house in Deptford in SE London.

The National Front march through Leeds has shown that march bans under the Public Order Act by Home Secretary Willie Whitelaw have nothing to do with any threat to Public Order.

The decisions to ban National Front marches have simply been rather pathetic attempts to appease the Immigrant communities in this country. But like all appeasement, far from assuaging their thirst, it simply encourages yet more outbreaks of rioting and violence.

Peaceful marches by the National Front are showing the British people that there is one organisation that is not going to abandon them to the disasters of multi-racialism. The people of Leeds who joined the march showed how this stand is being welcomed.

RED MOB STORMS N.F. CHAIRMAN'S COLLEGE

A VICIOUS campaign of harassment against National Front Chairman, Andrew Brons, at the college where he works erupted into violence when sixty Reds burst through a Police cordon in an attempt to storm the building.

Three hundred left wing students from all over the country gathered in Harrogate on 24th June to demand the dismissal of Andrew Brons from his position as lecturer at Harrogate College of Further Education.

When they arrived outside the main entrance, to their surprise, they were met by a group of local National Front supporters who had taken up position earlier in the day.

Hearing that Andrew Brons was due to start lecturing in the College's Victoria Avenue Annexe they set off to attempt to prevent him from entering the building only to find that they had arrived too late.

A group of about 60 Reds then slipped past a Police cordon, infiltrated the building and attacked three members of the teaching staff as they attempted to storm into a common room.

Failing to find Mr. Brons, the thugs were forced to leave the building as more Police arrived. When Mr. Brons came to leave the college he was escorted past a Police cordon to his car which was attacked with bricks, lumps of concrete, bottles and banners as it drove away.

HOOLIGANS

These hooligans of the extreme left have now found a willing ally in the person of Robert Banks, Conservative MP for Harrogate.

He has attempted to make political capital out of the situation by publicly questioning whether Andrew Brons "is the right person to have as a lecturer of political philosophy in a college of further education."

He has also been reported as attempting to pressurise the College's Vice Principal, by means of private telephone calls.

The College Principal, Mr. Peter Drake, said of this intervention by Robert Banks:

"If he has said that he believes people at interview should be questioned about their political views then I frankly am horrified."

Despite this pressure, Andrew Brons recently stated:

"I have got a contract of employment and there is no way I will be leaving the college."

REBELLION

Meanwhile this latest campaign, decided upon at an unlawful meeting of the College's Student Union, now faces its own internal rebellion as the Harrogate Association of Conservative Students has finally decided to disassociate itself from this victimisation.

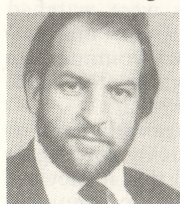

N.F. SECOND IN EAST LONDON POLL

NATIONAL FRONT candidate Vic Clarke pushed the Conservatives into third place in the Weavers Ward by-election in Tower Hamlets, East London on 9th July.

He received 12% of the vote and but for the intervention of a 'Constitutional Movement' candidate who received 4.6%, the result would have been even better.

Besides delivering election leaflets to every house in the ward, Tower Hamlets Branch also planned a street meeting in the Brick Lane area in support of their candidate.

Even though there had been such

Victor Clarke

Despite this type of harassment the election campaign was a great success winning a number of new recruits and the result was a significant improvement on the 3.9% achieved in the Bethnal Green and Bow District, which covers the same area, at the last GLC elections.

Let us hope this result shows that the British people are, at last, beginning to wake up to the multi-racial nightmare which is engulfing this country. We expect however that the British people will have to be subjected to much more multi-racial rioting and looting before they finally and decisively desert the Conservative, Labour and Liberal parties for the NF.

SHEFFIELD ACCRINGTON ROCHDALE

AFTER a period of relative quiet, the Sheffield Group of the National Front has burst back to life.

Recently, while selling National Front News in the City Centre a small group of NF members were attacked by a gang of about 30 Red thugs.

However far from being scared off by such an attack, Organiser Frank Norman returned the following Saturday with a larger number of NF activists.

Since persuading the Reds that Sheffield City Centre could be very unhealthy sales of NF News have rocketed and the group has gone from strength to strength.

LEAFLETS produced by Accrington Branch of the National Front which attack a proposal to open a take-away restaurant are being investigated by the Commission for Racial Equality.

Mr. Tabbalats, a Jordanian, and his Italian wife were going to open a take-away restaurant in an area where there are already five other take-aways.

However after local residents received the NF leaflet they protested to the local council and planning permission was refused.

Mr. Tabbalats and his wife have now complained to the CRE in an attempt to have the decision reversed.

ROCHDALE National Front has recently acquired its own printing machine and is producing its own local news sheet, Rochdale News.

The latest issue exposes the way in which the Police attempted to keep out National Front Counting Agents from the count at the last set of council elections.

Because of the vociferous complaints by Rochdale NF a senior Police officer from Chester has agreed to meet a representative of the National Front to discuss the matter.

As a result of this newsletter Rochdale NF has received a whole batch of letters from young people who want to join the party.
